Jamerson claiming that he was falsely arrested for "Felony Attempted Aggravated Vehicular Assault" against a tenant in his apartment building. Mr. Armstrong claims he was falsely imprisoned.

3
Personal Injury: This case arises from a traffic stop made on August 11, 2010. On August 11, 2010 at approximately 2030 hours, Ahnstrom and Laird noticed a white van driving with headlights turned off. The officers stopped the van on Gordon Avenue near Jefferson Davis Highway. Almost immediately, Plaintiff became loud and argumentative with Officer Ahnstrom. Plaintiff stated that most of his brake lights were working. Officer Ahnstrom asked the driver to step out of the van after noticing a gun on the van's dashboard. Officer Laird then heard Plaintiff yell something to the effect of "Don't fuckin touch me!?" Officer Laird then heard a scuffle and quickly ran around the van. He saw Officer Ahnstrom attempting to gain control of the Plaintiff. Officer Ahnstrom tried to grab Plaintiff's arms, but Plaintiff pulled away and tensed up. Officer Laird joined the fray attempting to grab Plaintiff and pull him to the ground. This caused all three to tumble to the ground. Officer Laird then noticed Sergeant Waite also trying to gain control of the Plaintiff. During the struggle, Officer Laird asked Plaintiff if he was a police officer, but Plaintiff did not respond. At some point, Sergeant Waite noticed Plaintiff's badge stating "You're a cop, you should know better than this." The struggle continued until handcuffs were placed on the Plaintiff. Once in handcuffs, Plaintiff said "Call my sergeant, Bohannon." Plaintiff then began to curse Officer Ahnstrom maintaining he was stopped because he was black. Sergeant Linton arrived at the scene and spoke to Sergeant Waite. Plaintiff continued to not comply with the officers instructions and started walking toward Sergeant Waite and Sergeant Linton. Again, Plaintiff was instructed to stop, but he continued walking. Officer Ahnstrom put his arm through the driver's arm to prevent him from walking further. Once Sergeant Waite finished walking with Sergeant Linton, Officer Ahnstrom released the Plaintiff. Officer Hernandez arrived at the scene and stood with the Plaintiff. Plaintiff remained cuffed until Captain Martin arrived on the scene and talked to everyone. Sergeant Waite took Officer Laird's take home police vehicle to 2nd Precinct to have the video of the stop extracted but for some reason was unable to do so.
